

Dr. Piero Simeone

Degree with honours in Dentistry and Dental Prosthetics at the Faculty of Medicine and Surgery, University of Tor Vergata in Rome, Italy.

In 2009, he achieved an international Master of Science (MSc) in "Function and Dysfunction of the Masticator Organ" directed by Prof. Rudolf Slavicek (University of Krems - Austria).

In 2011, he achieved a postgraduate degree in "Orthodontics in Craniofacial Dysfunctions" directed by Prof. Sadao Sato (Kanagawa Dental College - Japan).

In 2013, he continue the education achieving a postgraduate degree at the Seattle Kois Center (USA), in "Restorative & Periodontal Interface and Functional Occlusion" under the tutoring of Dr John Kois.

In 2018, he achieved the Master in Business Administration (MBA) at the LUISS Business School in Rome.

He is an active member of the Italian Academy of Esthetic Dentistry (IAED), the Italian Academy of Prothetic Dentistry (AIOP) and the Italian Association of Gnathology (AIG)

He is a clinical researcher in the dental field, and author of international scientific publications.

He teach in private courses and is a speaker in conferences in the field of his specialization.

He practice in a private office in Rome.